6. Implications of the Recommendations

6.1. Legal Implications

6.1.1. Section 104 of the Licensing Act 2003 provides that where a 'relevant person' (i.e. the Chief Officer of Police or the Environmental Health Service) are satisfied that allowing a premises to be used in accordance with a temporary event notice would undermine a licensing objective, that 'relevant person' is required to give a notice ("an objection notice") stating the reasons for being so satisfied.

6.1.2. Where a licensing authority receives an objection notice it is required, by section 105(2) of the Licensing Act 2003 to:

6.1.3. hold a hearing to consider the objection notice, unless the premises user, the relevant person who gave the notice and the licensing authority agree that a hearing is unnecessary; and

6.1.4. Having regard to the objection notice, give the premises user a counter notice if it considers it appropriate for the promotion of a licensing objective to do so.

6.1.5. In circumstances where an objection notice has been given (and not withdrawn) and the licensing authority has determined not to give a counter notice under section 105, the authority may impose one or more conditions on the standard temporary event notice if (a) the authority considers it appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives to do so; (b) if the conditions are already imposed on the premises licence that has effect in respect of the premises; and (c) the conditions would not be inconsistent with the carrying out of the licensable activities under the temporary event notice.

6.2. Finance Implications

6.2.1. There are no financial implications

6.3. Policy Implications

6.3.1. The Licensing Authority has adopted a Statement of Licensing Policy in accordance with section 5 of the Licensing Act 2003.

6.3.3. Members should provide reason(s) for any decision taken and should set out the reasoning where they determine to depart in any way from the Policy or Guidance.

6.4. Equality Implications

6.4.1. There are no direct equality implications

6.5. Human Resources Implications

6.5.1. There are no human resources implications

6.6. Risk Management Implications

In respect of the TEN's applications for an extension to the operating hours at Revolutions Bar in Wilmslow on the 19th and 22nd of April we are writing to you to inform you of our objection under licensing objective of Prevention of Crime and Disorder.

Due to an increase in crime and disorder reported at the premises this year, with many of the incidents being of a violent nature we feel that this extension to the licensing hours will increase the risks of further incidents which could have an impact on the licensing objectives and in particular the prevention of crime and disorder.

This is supported by the recent incidents that have occurred at Revolutions which are outlined below one of the incidents was of such a serious nature that it resulted in five people being arrested for assault and during the arrests a police officer was assaulted this incident involved groups of people that were highly intoxicated some of which had been ejected from the premises on or around closing times.

All police incidents are recorded on a system called Niche. A search was completed from 31/12/18 to 15/03/19 of this database and the following incidents are directly related to the premises.

REVOLUTION, WILMSLOW

The purpose of this Dispersal Policy is to ensure, so far as it is possible, that minimum disturbance or nuisance is caused to our neighbours and to ensure that the operation of the premises makes the minimum impact upon the neighbourhood in relation to potential nuisance and anti-social behaviour.

This will be achieved by exercising pro-active measures towards and at the end of the evening.

By ensuring that this Dispersal Policy document is brought to the attention of Management and Staff we will seek to encourage the efficient, controlled and safe dispersal of our patrons during our closing period.

1. At the end of the evening management and staff will assist with the orderly and gradual dispersal of patrons.
2. Staff Members (including door personnel when employed) will advise patrons to leave the premises quickly and quietly out of respect for our neighbours.
3. Notices will be displayed requesting our customers to leave quietly and in an orderly manner out of consideration to neighbours and their attention will be drawn to these notices by members of staff.
4. We will ensure the removal of all bottles and drinking receptacles from any patron before exiting the premises (this does not apply in the case of consumption in any delineated external drinking area.)
5. We will actively discourage our customers from assembling outside the premises at the end of the evening.
