  - a) to take no action; or
  - b) to give a Counter Notice under section 105 of the Licensing Act 2003.

Background

4 On 20th May 2024 the Licensing Authority received a Temporary Event Notice (TEN) given by Christopher Taylor for the premises know as:

Churches Mansion, 150 Hospital Street, Nantwich CW5 5RY

5 The notice seeks to authorise the sale of alcohol and regulated entertainment at the premises on the 20th July 2024. The Notice setting out the permitted temporary activities is attached to this report at Appendix 1.

6 The Council's Environmental Protection Team has submitted an objection notice in respect of the Temporary Event Notice. The objection notice is attached to this report at Appendix 2. The objection relates to the prevention of public nuisance objective.

7 The premises does not have a premises licence issued under the Licensing Act 2003.

8 Cheshire Police have not submitted an objection notice.

9 Section 104 of the Licensing Act 2003 provides that where a 'relevant person' (i.e. the Chief Officer of Police or the Environmental Health Service) are satisfied that allowing a premises to be used in accordance with a temporary event notice would undermine the licensing objectives, that 'relevant person' is required to give a notice ("an objection notice") stating the reasons for being so satisfied.

10 Where a licensing authority receives an objection notice it is required, by section 105(2) of the Licensing Act 2003 to:

- a) hold a hearing to consider the objection notice, unless the premises user, the relevant person who gave the notice and the licensing authority agree that a hearing is unnecessary; and
- b) having regard to the objection notice, give the premises user a counter notice if it considers it appropriate for the promotion of a licensing objective to do so.

11 In circumstances where an objection notice has been given (and not withdrawn) and the licensing authority had determined not to give a counter notice under section 105, the authority may impose one or more conditions on the standard temporary event notice if:

- a) the authority considers it appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives to do so;

- b) if the conditions are already imposed on the premises licence that has effect in respect of the premises; and
  - c) the conditions would not be inconsistent with the carrying out of the licensable activities under the temporary event notice.
- 12 The effect of issuing a counter-notice would mean that any proposed activities could not take place. If the premises user were to provide licensable activities without an authorisation under the Licensing Act 2003, offences contrary to section 136 of the Licensing Act 2003 would be committed. Upon summary conviction this offence is dealt with by up to six months imprisonment and/or a fine (amount unlimited).
- 13 Any conditions imposed under section 106A of the Licensing Act 2003 can only be a replication of those conditions already present on a premises licence.
- 14 Members should note that there isn't an existing premises licence in place and therefore the Sub-Committee cannot add any conditions at the hearing.
- 15 Members should also note the deregulation of entertainment and the types of entertainment that no longer need authorisation under the Licensing Act 2003.
- 16 The premises user has confirmed their intention to have a daytime summer garden party with music and bar until 22:00hrs and as there is no premises licence in place, this activity would need to be authorised under the Licensing Act 2003.

Consultation and Engagement

- 17 Consultation in respect of a Temporary Event Notice is prescribed in the Licensing Act 2003.
- 18 Each notice is sent to both Cheshire Police and Environmental Protection for consultation, acting as relevant persons for the purpose of the Act.
- There is no public consultation in respect of these notices and no consultation with other responsible authorities.
- 19 An objection notice can be given within 3 working days. Receipt of an objection notice will trigger a hearing of the Licensing Act Sub-Committee.
