Introduction

This is our action plan to address the findings from the Ofsted inspection of children's services in Cheshire East which took place in February and March 2024. The findings from the inspection are available in a report on the Ofsted website. The inspection gave Cheshire East's children's services an overall grading of inadequate and found that although some improvements had been made since our last inspection in 2019, the quality of practice and the experience and progress of children and young people was too variable, and for care leavers this was inadequate. We need to make significant improvements and this plan sets out how we will do this.

We are committed to improving outcomes for children and young people. We will use the inspection findings to continue to improve the support we offer. This plan responds to all the areas identified in the inspection report. Immediate action was taken to improve services, starting during the inspection, and this is reflected in the plan alongside longer-term actions and ambitions.

Through the delivery of our plan and our programme of improvement, we will continue to embed a culture of high support and high challenge and be a child-focused organisation that works together with people, through effective relationships that support positive change. We know our workforce is our most important asset and we will continue to support and regularly communicate with frontline practitioners and managers so everyone understands their role in improvement and we co-produce, deliver, evaluate and celebrate changes together.

Context

This inspection, and previous inspections, have shown that Cheshire East's children's services have not provided consistently good quality support to our children and young people. We were judged inadequate in 2013 and 2024. In developing this plan, we have critically considered what barriers have prevented us from achieving good quality services to date. We have recognised that in the past we have moved from fixing problem to problem, which has led to a 'stop/start' approach. We now need to embed a systemic approach to improvement; changing our culture, developing the right systems and processes to ensure we routinely evaluate impact, and holding our shape around the changes we expect to see – holding the right people accountable consistently at every level.

We will be reviewing and changing our services in line with the children's social care national framework to ensure that we deliver consistently good quality practice that achieves strong outcomes for children and young people.

Cheshire East Council, like councils across the country, has been experiencing unprecedented financial pressures. In February 2024, the council approved a balanced budget for 2024/25, which included spending money from reserves to cover the impact of additional financial pressures. The level of reserves is now insufficient to adequately protect the council against future risks. Forecasts indicate there is four-year funding gap of £100m to balance the budget and hold an appropriate level of reserves.

Alongside the improvement programme in children's services, Cheshire East Council has embarked on a significant transformation programme. The council-wide transformation plan will aim to address the funding gap and will be submitted to the Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities (DLUHC) as part of the criteria for exceptional financial support from the government.

We calculate that £1.986m of additional investment will be required to support children's services to deliver our improvement plan at pace. A costed proposal for additional capacity and expertise to support improvement was received and agreed by the Children and Families Committee and Full Council in July 2024.

Challenges for children's services are challenges for the whole council, and there is whole-council commitment and support for delivering this plan. This improvement plan is part of the council's transformation and has been informed by the findings from the LGA corporate peer review in March 2024.

The council's transformation plan will also support us to achieve our improvement plan. Cheshire East Council's transformation will include changes to the organisation's culture - embedding high standards, and effective challenge and performance management where these are not met, focusing on outcomes, not process. These messages will be echoed through our children's leadership and management programme.

The council's transformational plan will also support improved working between council services and improve the support to services from enablers.

This plan also feeds into our wider strategy for developing the council's children's services, the Together Strategy, which has the following building blocks:

- Together supporting and enabling our workforce: we have the right people, with the right skills and support to improve the outcomes of our children and young people
- Together connecting as one team: we work as one team across children's and adult services with shared skills, processes and communication to focus on the needs and experiences of children, young people and their families
- Together improving and innovating our services: our children, young people and their families have consistently good/ outstanding experiences of our services

- Together collaborating with our families, colleagues and partners: we adopt an 'experts by experience' approach that ensures that those receiving or delivering our services help to shape them.

Coproduction

In Cheshire East, we aim to work TOGETHER and adopt an 'experts by experience' approach that ensures that those receiving or delivering services help to shape them.

We will engage children and young people throughout our improvement journey in developing and delivering improvements. Children and young people's views will influence our delivery on a child, service, and strategic level. We are developing a new Corporate Parenting Board that will include care experienced young people as key members. Young people will be involved in shaping and evaluating services through the Corporate Parenting Board, our young people's participation groups, through our audits, young people's surveys, and the local offer app.

We will also continue to engage with practitioners and managers within our frontline teams to ensure we are all delivering improvements together, and we will ensure their feedback, and feedback from our partners, informs our evaluation of impact.

Support and Challenge

We are committed to delivering this plan and achieving consistently good and better services that achieve strong outcomes for children and young people. We know that we cannot deliver this plan alone, and that we need to work together with our children, young people and families, with our teams, across the partnership and throughout the council.

Throughout the development of the plan, we have engaged with frontline practitioners and managers on the inspection findings and what support they need moving forwards, and we will continue to engage with our workforce throughout the delivery of the plan to ensure we are all on this journey together.

This plan has been developed together with and provided with scrutiny and challenge by:

- service managers and service leads, including partners
- the children’s social care leadership team
- the children’s services leadership team
- the council’s leadership team
- the Safeguarding Children’s Partnership
- the Improvement and Impact Board
- elected members on the Children and Families Committee and Cared for Children and Care Leavers Committee.

The final plan was endorsed by full Council.

We will continue to invest in our workforce through training, development, and management and leadership support and challenge. Training has been tailored to the areas for improvement raised during the inspection and will continue to be responsive to development needs throughout the year as identified in quality assurance and monitoring activity. This includes a bespoke leadership programme for all leaders within children’s services to embed a culture of high support and high challenge, and embedding restorative practice as our practice model so we build strong relationships that support effective change. The impact of training and support on practice will continue to be evaluated through the delivery of this plan so we can adapt and respond to areas for improvement.

We will also seek to ‘infect our system’ with good practice by collecting and sharing examples of good practice with teams.

We also recognise the enormous value from learning from other areas. We are currently working with Stockport through the sector led improvement programme (SLIP) to embed our practice model, restorative practice. We have tailored this support to help to address the inspection findings. We have reviewed successful improvement plans in other areas and sought advice from other authorities and external bodies with specialist expertise, including the LGA and DfE, to support the development of this plan and will continue to use these sources throughout our improvement journey. We will continue to learn from innovative and best practice in other areas to improve our offer for children and young people in Cheshire East.

Monitoring Impact

The first chapter of the plan is structured under the seven areas for improvement highlighted in the 2024 Ofsted inspection report. It starts with senior manager oversight, to ensure this drives continuous improvement, followed by care leavers, as this is the area requiring the greatest improvement. The second chapter considers the additional areas for development from the inspection report. The third chapter covers additional actions identified through internal assurance activities.

The plan sets out the actions we will take to improve services. What is most important is that what we do makes a difference, so each month we will report on impact against the inspection findings. Progress against actions and impact against the inspection findings will be rated using the following:

Colour	Action Definition	Impact Definition
Grey	Action not started yet, no risk to implementation anticipated	Too early to measure impact
Red	Action not on track	No impact or very limited impact/ improving outcomes for a few children and young people
Amber	Action not yet completed, but on track to be completed within timescales	Some positive impact but this is variable and does not

Amber E	Action completed but we need to embed and evidence impact	consistently improve outcomes for children and young people
Green	Action completed and embedded with evidence of impact	Positive and consistent impact which delivers improved outcomes for children and young people

Each section of the plan has a dedicated senior leader who is responsible for achieving and reporting on impact. The sources we will use to assess our impact for each area of the plan are outlined in each section. These include:

- Seeking and listening to children and young people’s experiences
- Single agency and multi-agency audits
- Performance indicators
- Listening to practitioners and managers, including within partner agencies
- Recruitment and retention information.

Our impact on work with children and young people will also be evaluated through Ofsted and DfE monitoring visits.

The plan will be a live and responsive plan, so will adapt to incorporate new actions as needed. The plan covers the activity we will carry out over a 12-month period from April 2024 to March 2025. A new plan will be developed after this plan is completed for the period from April 2025 onwards.

Governance and Accountability

Progress against the plan will be driven by senior leaders and will be assessed and monitored through usual management arrangements including senior management meetings and supervision.

An independently chaired Improvement and Impact Board will formally scrutinise progress and impact monthly. Key members of the Safeguarding Children’s Partnership and the council’s senior leadership team are members of the Improvement and Impact Board.

The Corporate Parenting Board will drive developments for cared for children and care leavers, and so will contribute to delivering improvements in relation to the inspection findings.

The Safeguarding Children’s Partnership will receive six monthly updates on progress enabling all members to scrutinise and challenge progress.

The Children and Families Committee will scrutinise impact against the plan at every committee meeting.

The Cared for Children and Care Leavers Committee will scrutinise progress pertinent to care experienced young people and will receive reports on the work of the Corporate Parenting Board and its impact on improving outcomes for these young people.

The Children’s Services Strategic Quartet, chaired by the council’s chief executive, will scrutinise progress against the plan at every meeting.

Progress will also be reported into the corporate assurance panel, an external panel monitoring the council’s transformation.

Key stakeholders, including our workforce, will be kept informed of progress through quarterly communications. Feedback from our workforce will continue to be sought through existing forums/ mechanisms such as team meetings, senior leaders walking the floor, councillor frontline visits, and #talktogether staff sessions.

Glossary

The legal definition of a care leaver comes from The Children (Leaving Care) Act 2000 which states that a care leaver is someone who has been in the care of the local authority for a period of 13 weeks or more spanning their 16th birthday.

Care leavers can also be referred to as care experienced young people or young adults, as they have had experience of being in care. This term tends to be preferred by young people/ young adults. Both terms are used interchangeably within this plan.

Chapter 1

1. Senior Leaders' Oversight

What needs to improve
Senior leaders' oversight of performance to ensure that there is a coherent approach to continuous improvement.
Section Lead	Director of Family Help and Children's Social Care
What inspectors found	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Senior leaders had not recognised, until this inspection, the extent of improvement required in services for care leavers. Systems to monitor and track groups of individual children have not been effective in identifying vulnerable care leavers who are not receiving the services they need. As a result, too many vulnerable care leavers are not getting the right level of help, support or protection. Despite improvements, the quality of practice is still too variable. Improved timeliness has not been achieved for all children. Implementation of improvement plans needs to accelerate across teams but in particular within the care leavers service. Leaders have recognised in their self-evaluation that more needs to be done to ensure that quality assurance activity is identifying all areas of poor practice and that it is consistently having an impact on outcomes for children. Not all young people are informed of, or understand, the pledges contained within the cared for children and care leavers' strategy.

2. Care Leavers

What needs to improve

The quality, consistency and responsiveness of support, advice and guidance for care leavers, including those who are homeless, with additional vulnerabilities, and those who are over 21 years of age.

A. Quality of practice

Section Lead	Head of Service for Cared for Children and Care Leavers
What inspectors found	The quality of practice for care leavers is inadequate. Relationships and transition to the care leavers' service <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Not all children in care have the opportunity to get to know their personal advisers (PAs) to build a relationship with them before they are 18 years old. Planning for young people who transition to the leaving care service is not always robust. For some, their voice is not evident and plans lack detail which means their individual needs are not always sufficiently understood. This means that there are some young people who leave care with too much uncertainty about how they will be supported.• Not all PAs know their young people well enough to have trusted and meaningful relationships with them. For some young people, PAs do not know their stories of why, or when, they came into care.• Case records do not reflect the work undertaken with young people. Pathway plans <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pathway plans do not consistently cover all the important elements of young people's lives. Wishes and feelings are not always clearly expressed. They do not consistently include other professionals, they are not sufficiently ambitious for young people and they do not always capture young people's voices.• Plans for unaccompanied asylum-seeking care leavers do not consistently acknowledge their unique cultural heritage, or identify how young people can access support for the trauma they have experienced.• Plans are not always effective in helping young people to make meaningful change in their lives.• Support for care leavers is not effective enough, which means that many do not access employment, further education or training. Recognising and responding to risk <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Risk of harm is not always recognised or responded to effectively.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For some young people, there is a lack of professional curiosity about their day-to-day lives and living arrangements. This has resulted in a lack of understanding of risk, or a clear recognition of how best to support young people when they are at their most vulnerable. When potential risk of harm for care leavers is identified, it is difficult to see how this risk is managed or mitigated effectively. This means that some care leavers may be exposed to risky situations and people. This was not fully understood by senior leaders until this inspection. Management oversight <ul style="list-style-type: none"> PAs receive supervision, however the quality of supervision was variable. Most supervision is brief and task focused. Significant gaps in supervision exist on some young people's care files meaning there is a lack of consistent management grip on driving young people's plans forward and ensuring they are safe.

B. Planning for Adulthood
Section Lead	Head of Service Cared for Children and Care Leavers
What inspectors found	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Transition planning into adulthood for most care leavers is variable. There is some proactive planning for disabled care leavers with complex physical needs, and young people with neurodiverse needs. However, for other care leavers such as those with complex mental health and emotional needs, proactive transition planning does not always take place. This means that these care leavers do not access the help and support that they need. • Not all care leavers have access to their full health history. This means important information that could be used to provide ongoing support to them as they transition to adulthood is not available or used to inform care planning for them. • Not all PAs spoken to by inspectors could describe the local offer to care leavers or explain how care leavers could benefit from it. Not all young people are accessing the full range of entitlements or services available to them. The local offer is not communicated effectively to all care leavers, which means that they are not all aware of, nor do they access, their full range of entitlements.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Care leavers can access community-based resources but do not have a dedicated place they can go to which provides a safe space for them to receive support. The plan is for the newly opened family hubs to provide this in the coming months but at present this is not available.

The Participation Team are developing good working relationships with Pure Insight, the Care Leaver Service, and Care Leaver Employment, Education and Training Team who regularly enable the team to work with their groups/young people and signpost opportunities to them.
What impact we are achieving for children and young people What our quality assurance activity tells us – including audits, surveys, feedback from children, young people and families, and feedback from our workforce. Include any risks or if any new actions have been identified.

There is increased senior leader oversight of outcomes for young adults through the post-18 resource and accommodation panel (RAP). This panel ensures there are meaningful plans in place for young adults and supports them to take up tenancies at the right time for them.

We know from the focus audits that planning for adulthood from an early point is not yet embedded and is still an area for development.

What our performance indicators show

As at 12 November, there were 36 17 year olds and 37 16 year olds without PAs. An advert for permanent PAs is about to go out which will support with bringing more stability to the service.

What our performance indicators show

In October, 70% of care leavers aged 17-18 were in EET, which is a reduction on previous months.

59% care leavers aged 19-21 (up to 21st Birthday) were in EET, which again is a reduction on previous months. Of those 66 young people who were NEET, 6 young people are signed up to re-engagement activities – these young people were previously unable to work due to disability / illness so this is a real step for them.

These indicators can fluctuate significantly in September and October as individuals decide that initially agreed education pathways may no longer be the most appropriate route and are looking for different options. October half term is a time when colleges review attendance and continuation on courses.

D. Accommodation

Section Lead Head of Service for Cared for Children and Care Leavers

What inspectors found

- For care leavers who live out of the area, accessing suitable housing is challenging and some wait for extended periods in supported accommodation until suitable permanent accommodation becomes available.
- A small number of care leavers are homeless. This group includes some care leavers with the greatest needs, including those who struggle with their mental health, those who are not in education, employment or training (NEET) or those who are in unsuitable accommodation, or have no fixed abode.
- Information about where young people are living is not routinely updated. This means that the local authority cannot be assured that these vulnerable young people are safe and well cared for.

A director level project group for accommodation for young people aged 16+, chaired by the Interim Director of Commissioning, has been in place since July 2024 and has met four times. Mapping of existing capacity shortfalls and pressures within accommodation has been completed. A project plan has been developed to increase our accommodation and was this agreed by the council's Corporate Leadership Team in July. The project plan will be delivered in 3 phases between July 2024 to March 2026 for full implementation of the offer. Governance arrangements have been agreed to support the project and System Stabilisation and New Model Development sub-groups have been established under the Accommodation with Support Steering Group. We have also established a finance and activity workstream to run alongside the former. Since the last (September) monthly update we have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Formally notified the YMCA of our commitment to support the utilisation the Apollo Buckingham campus in Crewe for an initial cohort of 7 (possibly 8) unaccompanied asylum seeking young people so that they have the assurance to both sign the lease for those units of accommodation with Apollo Buckingham, but also to recruit additional dedicated support for those young people. • Staff recruitment - Crewe YMCA will commence recruitment once the needs of the cohort above are fully known – the YMCA have stated that it will be easier for them to recruit a dedicated full-time member of staff (40 hours) to support the group. • Service Lead Care Leavers will identify UASC Cohort to move by w/e 1 November 2024. Once agreed it should be possible to commence moves for the initial group of young people in December. • Evaluation – will be part of the next stabilisation meeting on 5 November, although the YMCA have already shared some ideas of what they intend to do i.e. mood boards, startup surveys etc.

- Notice to current provision – as soon as the initial cohort is agreed this will be done asap to avoid delays in moving the group into the Apollo accommodation. Once we have the cohort signed off, the Commissioning team will work with the Placements Team to serve notice on their current placements.
- Financial modelling has shown that for each young person above moved from their current provision with Homes for Support a saving of £1200-£1300 per week will be achieved, whilst at the same time ensuring a more bespoke offer of need specific support for the UASC cohort is offered, and freeing up places with Homes for Support for older cared for young people, for whom this is a suitable option.

Discussions are being progressed alongside this with our current commissioned providers of 16-17 year old supported and independent living placements, YMCA and P3, on mobilisation of additional emergency bed provision. YMCA expect to have 11 one bedroom 'ignition' flats available in Crewe by January 2025; 2 flats will be available in November 2024 and the other 9 by January. Three additional emergency beds will be available in Crewe, one is live, another will go live in November, and the other is awaiting a young person to move on.

Pure Insights (our commissioned care leavers mentoring service) have also expressed an interest in developing supported accommodation for young adults aged 18+ which we will explore with them. We are also looking at suitable options in the North of the Borough at the Bisset House/Mews site in Macclesfield managed by East Cheshire Housing Consortium to assess viability for up to 8 further units of accommodation for care leavers.

Formal plans for the full commissioned 18-25 offer will be tabled for the Children and Families Committee in January 2025 prior to open procurement activity. This work will now be overseen by the new model development group under the parent 16-25 accommodation with support workstream. From October we will involve the council's revenue and benefits representatives in this work as concerns have been raised about timeliness and contact frequency when trying to claim housing benefit back for eligible over 18's for those placed with registered housing providers.

What impact we are achieving for children and young people

What our quality assurance activity tells us – including audits, surveys, feedback from children, young people and families, and feedback from our workforce. Include any risks or if any new actions have been identified.

As of 12 November there was one young person in unsuitable accommodation (excluding those in custody).

Collaborative working across children's social care and housing is improving awareness and oversight of those in unsuitable accommodation and concerted effort is being made to support young adults into suitable accommodation. However, given the high level of complexity and vulnerability of these young people, we must continue to prioritise strengthening our collective response to them from a council and partnership perspective.

Prior to the inspection there were no commissioned emergency beds, we now have two post 18 emergency beds, with an additional bed due to go live once vacant. This increased emergency bed capacity has meant that when young people are in crisis they have been able to access an emergency bed that met their needs, and has avoided the use of unsuitable accommodation such as hotels.

As above.

E. Care leavers aged over 21

Section Lead Head of Service for Cared for Children and Care Leavers

- What inspectors found
- For care leavers over the age of 21, persistent efforts to engage them are not routinely made.
 - When young people become 21, unless they are in education or highly vulnerable, they are no longer provided with a PA or leaving care services unless they contact a duty worker and explicitly request help. At the time of this inspection, there were over 200 young people in this category, and this included very vulnerable disabled young people. Some of these care leavers have not been receiving the services they need, or are entitled to, and the local authority cannot be assured that they are safe.
 - It was not evident on young people's records that discussions had taken place to inform a decision as to young people's informed choice to move from having a personal advisor to the 21+ offer.
 - Disabled care leavers who are open to the 21+ offer are not prioritised as a vulnerable group and as such the local authority cannot be assured that their needs are being met. In cases seen there was not enough evidence of persistence or curiosity in where they may be now, despite histories of having extensive engagement with services as children.
 - The quality assurance of the care leaver cohort aged 21+ needs strengthening.

What impact we are achieving for children and young people What our quality assurance activity tells us – including audits, surveys, feedback from children, young people and families, and feedback from our workforce. Include any risks or if any new actions have been identified.

Young adults know the 21+ offer is there if they want to access it. However we have more to do to improve the quality and consistency of our support. We will strengthen our offer through the dedicated 21+ coordinator.

What our performance indicators show

As of 12 November, there were 234 young adults aged 21+, 165 were open to the 21+ offer and 69 were allocated a PA.

3. Quality of plans

What needs to improve
The quality of plans for children to ensure that they are more child-focused and drive forward positive change in a timely way.
Section Lead	Head of Service for Child in Need and Child Protection
What inspectors found	Child in need and child protection <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The quality of child protection plans is inconsistent. Some are outcome focused although some lack purpose and urgency. Some children have been subject to protracted child protection planning. The quality of safety plans is inconsistent, mostly relying on vulnerable parents and are overly optimistic. The use of jargon makes it difficult for parents to understand what is required. Multi-agency core groups meet regularly to review progress however social workers do not routinely update children’s experiences against the child protection plan. For some children who have been known to services for several years and have been the subject of repeat child protection and child in need plans, the quality of practice is too variable. Contingency thinking and planning are not strong enough for these children. This means that, for some children, plans are not effective in improving their outcomes. When child in need and child protection plans do not progress, there was drift and delay for children, and ineffective challenge from the chair and multi-agency group in child in need meetings, core groups and review conferences. Cared for children <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The quality of care plans for children is inconsistent. Consideration is not routinely given to permanence planning for children from an early stage. Some children are subject to statutory intervention for longer than they need to be. This is due to delays in the discharge of care orders.

Key improvement activities delivered this month Our first annual celebration of restorative practice took place at the celebrating practice workshops in October and November, which included a session on reflective circles and reflecting on practice in group supervision. The service has begun to collate the feedback from the new child protection plan. Professional feedback has been received from our key safeguarding partners who have been wholly positive about the changes being more child focussed, impact focussed and easier for families to read and engage with. We are committed to obtaining feedback from families to inform our next steps. Preparations are underway with the Participation Team to facilitate sessions with children and young people to review the revised cared for plan. A review of permanence decision panels has been completed. This has highlighted that some children and young people have experienced delays. In response, we have strengthened the permanence tracker to ensure this tracks all parts of the process including those managed by legal services, so there is oversight of timeliness.				Grey

We will be recruiting a court progression officer and developing a tracker that reviews all cases before the court which will also support increased timeliness for children and young people.

What impact we are achieving for children and young people

What our quality assurance activity tells us – including audits, surveys, feedback from children, young people and families, and feedback from our workforce. Include any risks or if any new actions have been identified.

In the latest audits, 2 plans were judged good, 3 requires improvement and 1 inadequate. The themes continue to be a lack of SMART planning as timescales were not clearly identified. Where plans were judged to be good, actions were outcome focussed and timebound. Contingency planning remains an area for improvement, and we need to be considering this at a far earlier point in our intervention.

What our performance indicators show

The percentage of children subject to repeat child protection plans within 2 years has reduced to 9.2% in October (from a range between 11.3-14.6%) which is positive.

4. Quality and frequency of visits

What needs to improve

What inspectors found	Child in need and child protection <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visits to children in need and those subject to child protection plans are not always carried out at a frequency reflecting assessed need. Not all visits are carried out within local authority prescribed or statutory timescales. There is a lack of clarity on the expected visiting times for children in need. • Some children are not visited often enough for social workers to build trusting relationships with them. Changes in social workers impacts this. • Visits to children do not always have purpose and do not link to their plans clearly enough. Records of visits vary in depth and quality of detail. Some visits are very brief, and their contribution towards the assessment or progress of the plan is limited. Cared for children <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visits to children in care are not always carried out in line with statutory visiting schedules or their assessed need.

5. Management Oversight and Supervision

What needs to improve
The quality of management oversight and supervision to ensure that consistent, good social work practice is in place.
Section Lead	Head of Service for Child in Need and Child Protection
What inspectors found	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Management oversight and challenge are not fully embedded across all service areas. Management oversight across all service areas does not provide sufficient challenge or reflection to improve social work practice. For some children, this has led to their needs not being recognised or acted upon in a timely way. • The quality of supervision is too variable. Supervision is not always sufficiently analytical or reflective. Supervision is not consistently driving children's plans forward, actions although timebound roll over for many months without completion. This means not all children's circumstances are sufficiently understood. • For a small number of young children who live in children's homes there have been significant delays in driving their care plans forward to secure long-term permanence. This is because there has not been effective management oversight and supervision of children's care plans, and IROs do not routinely challenge drift and delay. • Recent arrangements to track permanence for children have been introduced, but it is too soon to see the impact of this, and some children continue to experience drift and delay.

The supervision training was planned to take place over three dates between November and January. The session in November had to be stepped down due to low attendance despite this being mandatory for managers. A workshop was held on 9 October with team managers and service managers to share the recent audit findings on case supervision. The session explored themes, including a positive increase in compliance since the revision of the supervision template, evidence of reflection on some cases of recent significant events, improved reflection on some cases using the 'what, so what & now what' tool (shared with managers at a previous Leadership Network session). Audit also showed there continues to be a lack of consistency in recording supervision, capturing gaps in compliance and ensuring appropriate actions are recorded and reviewed. Use of tools improves quality of supervision, however they are not being consistently used. Some supervisions are too task orientated, lengthy and lack focus on the impact on the child. There are prompts now contained within the supervision record referencing the expectation to consider the voice of the child and consider lived experience. Further dip sampling of supervision with Team Managers and Service Managers is scheduled to take place on 26 November to look at whether quality of supervision is embedding and driving improved practice. In order for case supervision to be effective and timely the expectation is that practitioners complete the compliance section and any relevant significant updates prior to the supervision session support best use of the time to focus on reflection, impact and clear actions. This expectation has been briefed to staff. A review of permanence decision panels highlighted that some children and young people have experienced delays. 6. Effectiveness of IROs

What needs to improve
The effectiveness of child protection chairs and independent reviewing officers (IROs) to escalate, challenge and scrutinize plans for children.
Section Lead		Head of Service for Children’s Safeguarding and Quality Assurance
What inspectors found		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Child protection chairs are not consistently effective in driving forward plans for children. Some children have been subject to protracted child protection planning, some plans lack purpose and urgency. They do not consistently advocate for children. Consequently, there are missed opportunities to act when risks increase, or changes have not happened within the child’s timeframe. For example, for children who experience long-term neglect. • Child protection chairs recognise they need to be more specific about what needs to change within the timeframe for children. Some plans are lengthy and opaque, the use of jargon makes it difficult for parents to understand what is required. • Permanence plans are not routinely identified by the time of children’s second reviews, leading to drift and delay of children’s plans. For some children, IROs were not seen to actively raise this within the cared for children’s review. • IROs do not always robustly challenge the appropriateness of plans, which are not always-outcome focused, or challenge drift. • The quality and impact of care planning for cared for children was variable. For some children, the impact of multiple social workers and IROs has resulted in drift and delay of their plans and permanence. • For a small number of young children who live in children’s homes there have been significant delays in driving their care plans forward to secure long-term permanence. This is because there has not been effective management oversight and supervision of children’s care plans, and IROs do not routinely challenge drift and delay.

We remain keen to improve the evidence of IRO impact and anticipate the increased capacity now in place in the service will support this. In response to the feedback received from a cohort of cared for children who identified they would like to see a digitalised method of consultation, new feedback forms are being revised, and we have launched a digital portal for families and professionals to use.
Positively, we have seen the numbers of children open on a child protection plan for 15 months or longer remains reasonably static at 21. This equates to 7% of the total, a 0.5% increase from last month. However, this is a dynamic cohort and 8 children of the 21 have only just moved into the 15 month or longer bracket. This suggests we are making some improvements with managers and IROs tracking progress of planning at earlier points to ensure plans can be safely ended within the children’s timescales.

The percentage of children subject to repeat child protection plans is also reducing. Repeat plans ever are currently accounting for 21% of the overall numbers (year to date). This is a positive picture of continual reduction from a high of 39% in July.

The data around children with a plan of permanence at the second review is not where it needs to be. A deep dive is underway to understand the barriers in achieving permanence for these young people. This will inform the action plan that is being developed and will enable practice improvements to be understood in this area.

7. Sufficiency of placements

What needs to improve
The sufficiency of suitable placements that can meet children and young people's assessed needs.
Section Lead		Head of Service Children's Provision
What inspectors found		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> When children cannot remain in the care of their birth parents, there is variability in how quickly potential carers from within the extended family are identified. Challenges to sufficiency impact on the choice of placements and the quality of children's experiences. Some children still live in homes that do not match their needs, due to a lack of choice. Sufficiency of in-house foster carers is a challenge. Some children experience multiple placement moves, which are unsettling for them. There are inconsistencies in management oversight and recording as to the rationale for this. A small number of young children who now live in children's homes have experienced frequent moves in foster care placements and too many changes in social worker. Some young children live in residential children's homes for long periods of time.

Placements: Placements continue to be challenging but we are looking to be creative to ensure our children and young people have homes that meet their needs, this includes supporting the APOC (appropriate places of care) workstream. Fostering: The Foster4 offer is now embedded into our service, which includes a recruitment hub. Foster4 data highlights the following: Number of enquiries into the service – 111 Number of expressions of interest – 28 Expressions of interest that have resulted in initial visits – 12 Number of assessments currently in progress – 9 Number of new foster carers approved - 4

The Foster4 initiative is still very new and impact is hard to measure at this point, however, if all 9 assessments conclude positively in the financial year, we would have a total of 13 new fostering households, which would be 160% increase on the previous year.

Young people have developed recruitment questions to ask foster carers, and delivered training to the fostering panel, to ensure children and young people's voices and experiences are included in the recruitment and selection of foster carers.

The agency decision maker has observed the fostering panel this month and offered feedback. Children's questions have been used and are giving a richness to the process.

A new communications business partner is now in place for children's services who is supporting fostering. We have launched a promotional video – fostering is everything – which shows the long-term impact fostering can have to show people how rewarding and life-changing fostering is. We are also exploring targeted marketing with Triple Value Impact (transformation / digital) project group.

In House Residential:

Flude House has had a difficult month due to staffing sickness, however support from Cherry Tree has been offered to stabilise the house. An audit was completed by the responsible individual and has resulted in an action plan for the Homes Manager.

All documents have been submitted to Ofsted for Cherry Tree House. Ofsted have been contacted to chase up on our registration visit.

Joint Commissioning of high needs placements

A triangulation group has been established between the ICB MH and Neurodiverse Commissioning Team, ICB Transforming Care Team, and Cheshire East Council Strong Start Commissioning Team to look at options for children with complex needs. Mapping of 'as-is' position and desired future state for jointly commissioned placements for complex young people (principally those with learning disabilities, neurodiverse and/or challenging behaviours) will commence late November.

We continue to embed the quality assurance of strategy meetings in the Safeguarding Children's Partnership multi-agency liaison meeting. This meeting is attended by key strategic leads in health, police, education, children's social care and the partnership business manager. The next multi-agency liaison meeting is taking place on 10 December where strategy meetings linked to neglect will be the focus. This learning will go back into individual agencies to support practice improvements.

We are in the process of recruiting to a new QA officer position and part of this role will be to undertake quality assurance activity against areas of the improvement plan to test impact. A piece of QA activity needs to look at the quality of strategy meetings and partnership decision making.

What our performance indicators show

There have been 208 completed strategy meetings in October and 125 completed s47 investigations with a further 78 in progress. Only 59 of these section 47 investigations were conducted jointly with police colleagues. The quality assurance work around this improvement action needs to consider whether we conduct too many single agency s47 investigations and whether we are utilising strategy discussions in the right way.

Health Assessments for Cared for Children

Weekly multi-agency meetings are continuing to take place to try to resolve barriers to attendance for health assessments. Where children have not attended within timescales, there is still evidence of multi-agency work to ensure these children are seen as quickly as possible, often in complex situations.

Discussions have been held regarding utilising the care leaver app to update information for the young person to be able to access regarding their health and wellbeing. Further work is being explored regarding the identification of a named person as a link to contact within each GP practice that supports with our Cheshire East Care Leavers.

The Specialist Nurse Cared for Children 16+ and Transitions will offer support by attending the care leaver hub once a month.

What impact we are achieving for children and young people

What our quality assurance activity tells us – including audits, surveys, feedback from children, young people and families, and feedback from our workforce. Include any risks or if any new actions have been identified.

Emotional Health of Cared for Children

Current data shows for cared for children there is a maximum 3 week wait for first contact from point of referral for children referred to CWP Children & Young People's Mental Health Services, and this will be tracked monthly from this point as an additional marker has been added to the Patient Electronic Record to note cared for status. The majority of cared for children are seen within 1 week or less.

Health Assessments for Cared for Children

There continues to be an increase in the number of children who are experiencing significant delays in their initial health assessments. On review of the trends further detail has been noted below:

Consent

Consent to medical and consent to share medical information in some cases is not being secured within a timely manner to ensure that appointment allocation can proceed. This in particular is impacting the children who are placed out of area as the health admin teams are unable to send out the documentation bundle to providers out of area unless complete.

Paperwork

The completion of the IHA paperwork and associated documents is not being secured within the required timescale. The teams have also seen delays in the paperwork not being updated following a placement move which again has caused delays in the process of requesting an IHA.

Some providers out of area are placing specific requests for additional information to be gathered and submitted prior to the IHA slot being allocated. This information request is to secure a brief background history of the family and the reason why the child / young person has entered care as well as any known medical history that the health teams need to be made aware about.

GP registration and NHS Number allocation

GPs / NHS numbers are not being secured in a timely manner for children and young people placed out of area. Some of our unaccompanied asylum-seeking young people are not allocated an NHS number until they are registered with a GP. This process can take several weeks and has an impact on the IHA slot being allocated in out of area providers. Locally we have developed a process to support this.

Some out of area providers will not proceed with booking an IHA slot until a GP has been identified so they are able to ensure that there is clear communication, and the actions shared. This is not a persistent issue however we have reiterated with our children's social care colleagues the need to ensure that GP registration is a key requirement for our children placed out of area.

Placement Changes / Moves.

Some of our children within the Q2 time period have experienced multiple placement changes. As a result, this has a significant impact on the IHA waiting lists as often the cancellations are very late notice, or the child is not brought. This along with the need for updated paperwork is causing a number of blockages in the system. Clear and timely communication is required to ensure the health teams can proactively support.

Increased number of children and young people placed out of area

We have noted an increased number of children and young people placed out of area. The current figures do not reflect the placement changes where children and young people have been placed out to a variety of out of area locations but then are brought back into area for short periods of time before moving on again.

Social worker turnover

Some families have noted multiple changes of social worker within a very short timescale. This has proved challenging for the social worker to gain an understanding of what is outstanding and then completing the required actions within an effective time period. This has also increased the number of communication challenges between children's social care and health teams.

Interpreters

There have been multiple challenges with interpreters not arriving at IHA appointments or very late cancellations. This has been escalated to service leads. One young person was required to attend the hospital on 5 occasions as an interpreter had not attended the previously planned appointments.

Missed Appointments

Within Q2 there has been an increased number of missed appointments recorded. During Q2 there was a total of 27 missed or very late appointments cancellations. This also includes children who were brought too late to an allocated appointment slot. Health teams have explored with children's social care service leads to ensure that where children are placed with parents or family that support around organisation of the multiple appointments can be supported.

Large Sibling Groups

During Q2 there have been an increased number of large sibling groups. This has had a direct impact on clinic capacity to try where possible to ensure that the children are seen together. For 3-4 children this will consume a full clinic slot. For sibling groups larger than this consideration has been taken to split the siblings across different dates. It is noted that out of area providers will ensure the children are seen in the first available slot – this often means they are split across several days / weeks.

Carer Transport

During Q2 we have had a number of examples of where the lack of carer transport has negatively impacted the children being brought to appointments or causing very late cancellations. The health teams have worked very closely with children's social care to ensure where possible the families are supported to attend.

Late Notifications

The health teams have received a total of 16 late notifications during Q2. Within that total, 3 have been identified as being significantly late and outside of timescale. This has a negative impact on the health team's ability to secure an IHA slot within the 20 day timeframe.

Outcome:

The themes identified above result in:

- Large numbers of emails and escalations being sent to request urgent actions with challenges.
- The large volume of missed appointments has had a direct impact on the number of clinic slots available. The backlog of young people that have not been seen within timescale has increased.
- Overall workload for our admin teams to organise new clinics to alleviate the pressure, but this is currently not having an impact due the number outstanding.

Plan:

- ICB weekly review of the IHA dashboard led by the Deputy Designated Nurse with the ICB SG admin.
- Weekly IHA meetings with children's social care admin and the health provider teams – chaired by the Deputy Designated Nurse.
- Weekly summary report to be submitted to children's social care managers and admin leads so support can be secured for the children and families to attend.
- Children's social care admin leads to update the allocated social worker, team manager and supervising social worker.
- Escalations from the ICB team to the children's social care service leads to continue where required.
- 6 weekly meetings with children's social care service leads
- IHA process template awaiting sign off by the Interim Director of Family Help and Children's Social Care. Once authorised for use – the Named Nurse SG children WCNT, Deputy Designated Nurse, and the Designated Dr to hold a series of briefing sessions for children's social care to go through the agreed process and documentation.
- Decliner pathway awaiting sign off by the Interim Director of Family Help and Children's Social Care. This will then be added to the briefing sessions for review and discussion.
- Escalation pathway to be built around the process once agreed.

Please note the published tables below relate to all young people referred and as per the detail in the narrative above cared for children and young people are seen within 3 weeks or less in the vast majority of cases.

50% are now a standing agenda item discussed at each meeting. All meetings are attended by virtual school specialist attendance officers, advisors, and head of service, alongside service managers from within the social care teams and the manager of the cared for IRO team. The process for multi-disciplinary team meetings has been updated along with the documentation that is used to record the outcomes from these meetings.

We have now had two designated teacher training days that were attended by close to 55 designated teachers from across the authority. On top of this we've held training for our school governors that was well attended, and an event specifically for new designated teachers. At these events several of our currently cared for young people presented on their lived experiences to contextualise the work our schools do. The bulk of these sessions were specifically around writing effective PEPs or, in the case of the governor's session, how to quality assure PEP documents and their statutory role within schools. We have produced a pre-recorded piece of training that went to all designated teachers around the writing of SMART targets. We will be completing further PEP moderation at the end of the autumn term to analyse the data around quality assurance and RAG rating. We will use this information, comparing it with the summer term 2024, to see progress and identify areas for improvement / next steps.

The pilot for our new PEP has gone well with recommendations on some very tangible ways in which we can develop the form before a complete roll out to all schools in the spring term. Our Early Years PEP has been updated; this captures progress in relation to early learning goals and looks at where the child is now and what we hope for them for the future. This PEP now has a clear section for SMART targets. This will be rolled out to all early years settings in the spring term. We have a meeting scheduled in December with a working group to look at our EHCP cohort and how we can adapt our PEP document to improve how we capture their school experiences, achievements and targets in line with their EHCP.

Over the past month we have been working on completing our annual Virtual School Headteacher's Report which is due to go to the Cared for and Care Leavers Committee on 3 December 2024. Part of this process involved a thorough analysis of attainment data on our children in early years foundation stage (EYFS), Year 1 (phonics), Year 2 (phonics resitters), Year 6 (SATs), Year 11 (GCSEs and other qualifications), and Year 13 (A Levels and other qualifications). The bulk of this data is not yet validated, and so final findings and comparison is somewhat difficult – but we have received some very positive outcomes that we will be reporting on in the future in comparison with other groups both nationally and regionally.

Six 20 year olds who are NEET and able to work have been audited. This is 32% of the current 20 year old NEET cohort. 10 key areas have been highlighted as risk factors and further analysis is due to be completed around these key areas and next steps.

Termly meetings are taking place between the Virtual School post 16 advisor and school aged advisors. The autumn term meeting has taken place to look at next steps for all of our year 11 cohort and identify those young people at risk of NEET. Termly meetings are then held between the Virtual School and Youth Support Service to ensure support is in place for all students to support them into EET.

We have attended an inter-authority moderation of PEPs to look for strengths and share best practice. On top of this we have identified the young people for whom we will be moderating Personal Education Plans for in the autumn term.

What our performance indicators show
Compared to September 2024 we are seeing much improved data when it comes to attendance. In the first instance, we have fewer young people awaiting placement (currently 3 awaiting placement compared to 4 in September despite having 11 more cared for children). Equally, attendance figures for both primary and secondary school age young people is increasing moving from 96.07% to 96.35% and 83.86% to 84.36% respectively.

Key improvement activities delivered this month	Grey
Action W2 is marked as delayed as although we had additional funding agreed to support the care leavers service, and these posts were subsequently recruited to, instability within the service has meant that the service has not yet benefitted from additional capacity. A recruitment advert for permanent PA roles is about to go out shortly. The workforce strategy has been refreshed and will be considered by senior leaders and the workforce group. Practitioners have been invited to be part of a practice reference group to shape services in Cheshire East. The first meeting is intended to take part in December.
What impact we are achieving for children and young people What our quality assurance activity tells us – including audits, surveys, feedback from children, young people and families, and feedback from our workforce. Include any risks or if any new actions have been identified.
Our good practice alerts recognise some of the strong relationships that are in place between children, young people, families and practitioners. However we know some children and young people experience too many changes in worker which impacts on their ability to build relationships and feel supported.
