Political Representation on the Council's Committees

Report of: Kevin O'Keefe, Interim Director of Law and Governance (Monitoring Officer)

Report Reference No: C/12/25-25

Ward(s) Affected: All

For Decision

Purpose of Report

- 1 To report to Council changes in political group membership and to secure a resolution from Council in respect of the political proportionalities of the Council, and committee memberships.

Executive Summary

- 2 The law requires that each relevant Council decision-making body must be politically balanced as far as reasonably practicable, and that there is an appropriate total balance of Committee seats across the political structure of the Council of the whole.
- 3 This report addresses the changes in political group memberships since the last report to Council in May 2025. The previous vacant Wilmslow Lacey Green seat is now represented by Councillor Khumi Burton who is a member of the Conservative Group. Councillor Becky Posnett is now a non-grouped independent member.
- 4 In line with the Council convention, the proportionalities calculations in respect of the vacant Macclesfield Central seat will be reviewed at the Council meeting following the expected by-election.
- 5 The Appendix to the report sets out the revised political proportionalities on the Council's committees.

- 6 The report recommendation seeks a resolution of Council, as required by legislation.

RECOMMENDATIONS

That the political group and other representation, as set out in the Appendix to this report, and the methods, calculations and conventions used in determining this, as outlined in the report, be adopted and the allocation of places to Committees be approved.

Background

- 7 The Appendix sets out the political representation on committees, this being based on the political structure of the Council as a whole.
- 8 The proportionalities in the Appendix are based, as far as is reasonably practicable, upon the following methods and conventions:
- applying the relevant percentage to each body
 - rounding up from 0.5 and above, and rounding down below 0.5
 - where rounding up would result in more than one political Group receiving an additional seat, and the total allocation of seats exceeding what is required, the Group having the lowest residual entitlement will not receive an additional seat
 - where the required number of members for a decision-making body cannot be achieved using the above methods and calculations, the political group having the largest residual entitlement for that body will be entitled to be awarded the additional place (e.g. if one group is entitled to 4.25 places, and another group is entitled to 1.48 places, the first group will be awarded 4 places on the body in question, and the second group will be awarded 2 places)
 - where two or more political Groups have an identical residual percentage, the agreement of one Group to sacrifice a seat will be observed. Alternatively, the matter will be resolved by the toss of a coin.

Consultation and Engagement

- 9 In preparation of the Appendix to this report, officers liaised with the Council's political groups.

Reasons for Recommendations

- 10 To comply with primary legislation, the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and supporting secondary legislation, Local Government (Committees and Political Groups) Regulations 1990.

Other Options Considered

- 11 Legislation requires that the Council's political representation on committees, and its political structure, be reviewed upon a change in political group membership. Whilst one option might be for the Council to take no action this is not an option which Council is advised to take.

Implications and Comments

Monitoring Officer/Legal/Governance

- 12 The main rules on political proportionality are set out in S. 15(5) Local Government Housing Act 1989, and they are to be applied sequentially. The Local Government (Committees and Political Groups) Regulations 1990, made pursuant to the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, make additional provisions in respect of the political group and non-grouped representation on a local authority's committees, in relation to the overall political composition of the Council. The legislation applies to overview and scrutiny committees and the decision-making committees and sub committees of the Council.
- 13 The legislation requires that, where proportionality applies, and seats are allocated to different political groups, the authority must abide by the following principles, so far as is reasonably practicable:
- Not all of the seats can be allocated to the same political group (i.e. there are no single-group committees).
 - The majority of the seats on the body are to be allocated to a political group with a majority membership of the authority.
 - The total number of seats on all ordinary committees and sub committees allocated to each political group bears the same proportion to the proportion on the full Council.
 - The proposals contained in this report meet the requirements of the legislation.
 - The 1990 Regulations require political group leaders to notify the Proper Officer of the groups' nominations to the bodies in question.

Section 151 Officer/Finance

- 14 There are no direct financial implications.

Human Resources

- 15 There are no direct human resource implications.

Risk Management

- 16 Failure to comply with the Act and Regulations when appointing its committee memberships would leave the Council open to legal challenge.

Impact on other Committees

- 17 It is a legislative requirement that each of the Council's decision-making bodies are politically balanced, as far as reasonably practical, and that there is an appropriate total balance of committee seats across the political structure.
