6.2 The Council has adopted a policy in relation to the licensing of sexual entertainment venues; a copy of this policy is attached as Appendix 1.

7.0 Financial Implications (Authorised by the Director of Finance and Business Services)

7.1 Not applicable.

8.0 Legal Implications (Authorised by the Borough Solicitor)

8.1 On 24th February 2011 the Council resolved that the provisions of Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009, be adopted and shall apply within the Borough of Cheshire East with effect from 4th April 2011.

8.2 'Sexual Entertainment Venue' is defined within Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 (as amended) ('the 1982 Act') as "any premises at which relevant entertainment is provided before a live audience for the financial gain of the organiser or the entertainer." 'Relevant Entertainment' means "any live performance or live display of nudity which is of such a nature that, ignoring financial gain, it must reasonably be assumed to be provided solely or principally for the purpose of sexually stimulating any member of an audience (whether by verbal or other means)."

8.3 Paragraph 12 of Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act prescribes that a licence for a sexual entertainment venue shall not be granted to:

(a) a person under the age of 18; or

(b) to a person who is for the time being disqualified under paragraph 17(3) of the Schedule; or

(c) to a person, other than a body corporate, who is not resident in an EEA state, or was not so resident throughout the period of six months immediately preceding the date when the application was made; or

(d) to a body corporate which is not incorporated in an EEA state; or

(e) to a person who had, within a period of twelve months immediately preceding the date when the application was made, been refused the grant or renewal of a licence for the premises, vehicle, vessel or stall in respect of which the application is made, unless the refusal has been reversed on appeal.

8.4 Paragraph 12 of Schedule 3 also provides that the authority may refuse (i) an application for the grant or renewal of a licence on one or more of the grounds listed at (a) to (d) below; and (ii) an application for a transfer on either or both of the grounds at (a) and (b):

(a) that the applicant is unsuitable to hold the licence by reason of having been convicted of an offence or for any other reason;

(b) that if the licence were to be granted, renewed or transferred the business to which it relates would be managed by or carried on for the benefit of a person, other than the applicant, who would be refused the grant, renewal or transfer of such a licence if he made the application himself;

(c) that the number of sex establishments, or of sex establishments of a particular kind, in the relevant locality at the time the application is made is equal to or exceeds the number which the authority consider is appropriate for that locality;

(d) that the grant or renewal of the licence would be inappropriate, having regard

- (i) to the character of the relevant locality; or
- (ii) to the use to which any premises in the vicinity are put; or
- (iii) to the layout, character or condition of the premises, vehicle, vessel or stall in respect of which the application is made.

8.5 Paragraph 8 of Schedule 3 provides that the Council may grant a licence for the use of premises as a sex establishment 'on such terms and conditions and subject to such restrictions as may be so specified.' (subject to the requirement that conditions may not duplicate requirements or prohibition which are, or could be, imposed under the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005). Paragraph 13 of Schedule 3 provides the Council with the power to prescribe standard conditions applicable to licences for sex establishments. The Council had prescribed a set of standard conditions in relation to sexual entertainment venues; these are set out within Appendix 3 of the Council's policy (attached as Appendix 1 to this report). Where the Council has determined a set of standard conditions, every such licence granted by the authority shall be presumed to have been granted subject to the standard conditions unless they have been expressly excluded or varied. As is recognised by Home Office Guidance, issued in March 2010 (paragraph 3.42) in cases where a sexual entertainment venue also holds a licence under the Licensing Act 2003, local authorities should avoid duplicating licence conditions and should ensure that conditions imposed on each licence are relevant to the activities authorised by that licence. Whilst not a statutory requirement, local authorities have been encouraged by the Home Office to have regard to the guidance when exercising their functions.

8.6 The Provision of Services Regulations 2009 state that the local authority must provide the applicant with the reasons for the decision in writing if the authority refuses an application for the renewal of a licence. With the exception of a decision to refuse an application on a ground specified in paragraph 12(3)(c) or (d) (see paragraph 8.4 above), an applicant for the grant of a licence whose application is refused has the right to appeal the decision to a magistrates' court within twenty-one days.

8.7 When making a decision consideration must be given to the applicant's rights under the European Convention on Human Rights. Article 1 of the First Protocol (peaceful enjoyment of possessions) and Article 10 (freedom of expression) are rights which may be relevant. The Home Office guidance suggests that 'local authorities would be well advised to consider whether any interference with the applicant's rights under Article 10 or Article 1, Protocol 1 of the European Convention on Human Rights is necessary and proportionate for the prevention of crime and disorder, for the protection of health or morals or for the protection of the rights and freedoms of others or, in the case of Article 1, Protocol 1, can be justified in the general interest.' In addition Article 6 will be relevant to the hearing of the case, i.e. right to a fair hearing.

8.8 The Council has exercised its discretion and has determined to provide objectors to the application the opportunity to speak at the hearing.

9.0 Risk Management

9.1 The legal risks are set out within paragraph 8.0 above.
