Subject: Application for a Variation of a Premise License - Horseshoe Inn, Church Lawton

Dear Licensing Section,

Application for a Variation of a Premise License - Horseshoe Inn, Church Lawton, ST7 RA.

The Parish Council object to the application to extend the licensing hours at the Horseshoe Inn from the existing time of 00.30am to 1.30am Friday - Saturday.

We have received complaints from neighbouring properties concerned about the level of noise that maybe generated at this time in the morning.

Although the Horseshoe Inn is located in a rural area it also situated in a residential street & consideration should be given to neighbouring properties. It is very quiet at this time in the morning & concerns are that noise will travel to neighbouring properties.

Kind regards,

APPENDIX - 6

To Cheshire East Council
Development Management
P O Box 606
Municipal Buildings
Earle Street, Crewe

Dear Sir,

Town and Country Planning (General Development Procedure) Order 1995

Application Number: 13/1842C

Proposal Proposed external and internal works

Location Horseshoe Inn, SANDBACH ROAD, CHURCH LAWTON, ST7 3RA

I am writing in conjunction with the above application relating to the proposed extension to the licensing for trading hours at the Horseshoe Inn.

Our home is directly opposite the Horseshoe Inn and we are very concerned and would like to strongly object to any extension off opening hours. In recent months we have been witness to a number of incidents relating to people leaving the above premises late at night with fighting and loud confrontation involving police presence. We have experienced damage and theft, which has been also evident to the late finishing hours at the pub.

Over the past two years there has been several activities at the pub which included, late disco's, Karaoke, and live bands. The music levels were intolerable and disturbing, sometime resulting in violent behaviour.

In addition our neighbours, ' & I would also like this letter to reflect and represent there objection.

I would welcome further consideration of the above application and would be happy to formally represent the above objection and attend any formal discussion in the future
