Dear Sir / Madam

I write to you in total disgust at the new charge for taxi fares, do you realise that there is no longer a bus service on a Saturdays to town from Buglawton. Have we pensioners no right to enjoy whatever is going on in town on a Saturday

Do you think any pensioner on basic pension can afford £7.00 taxi fare! get in the real world!

And this is only for one way

Yours disgustedly

I am writing to request the Council to reconsider the very steep increases proposed in taxi fares from June 4.

The increases will hit elderly and other non-drivers who use taxis when lugging heavy shopping from town, attending doctors, hospital etc appointments when unwell, visiting friends not on a convenient bus route etc.

I personally also use a taxi when returning from an evening function in town now that many of the later evening buses no longer operate. I'm sure others do too.

The higher taxi fares may well increase the temptation to drink-drive and are also likely to encourage elderly drivers to continue driving longer than perhaps they should.
