

To whom it may concern,

I am a resident of Red Lion Lane, which is situated directly behind the Wilbraham Arms on Welsh Row, Nantwich.

Since moving in to this area, I have noticed a lot of anti social behaviour associated with this pub, including excessive noise – late into the morning; fighting outside my house and littering of beer glasses/bottles etc.

I personally would like the music/entertainment licence to be limited to Friday/Saturday nights only and for proper door management to be employed as is done at the other busy bars along this street.

Due to anti-social behaviour of the pub in the recent months, I respectfully ask that my name and address remain confidential.

Yours Faithfully
