- 13 The Sub Committee must determine this application in accordance with section 18 of the Licensing Act 2003. To do so otherwise would render its determination unlawful and invalid.

- (b) Exclude from the scope of the licence any of the Licensable Activities to which the application relates;
 - (c) Refuse to specify a person in the licence as the Premises Supervisor;
 - (d) Reject the application.
- 16 Members are reminded that should any conditions be added or amended, they should be practical, enforceable and appropriate to promote the Licensing Objectives.
- 17 Members of the Licensing Sub-Committee are reminded that they may not exercise discretion in any case, merely because it considers it desirable to do so. Careful consideration should be given to the application and the evidence presented by the parties in relation to the application.
- 18 Members are also reminded of the statutory obligation placed on the Local Authority under section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 in its various functions, and Licensing is one of those functions to do all that it can to prevent Crime and disorder, Anti-social Behaviour, behaviour adversely affecting the environment and reoffending.
- 19 Members must give reasons for their determination and notice of it must be communicated to the parties to this application. If Members depart from the Statutory Guidance or the Council's Statement of Licensing Policy then their decision notice must set out the reasons for doing so.
- 20 Finally, Members are also reminded that in determining the application, consideration also needs to be given to:
- The rules of natural justice
 - The provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Relevant Representations – GOAT, Nantwich

	Received on	From
1	22 nd July 2025	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
	Dear Licensing Team I am writing to object to the new licence application relating to GOAT, High Street, Nantwich. My objection concerns the following licensing objectives: Prevention of public nuisance. Prevention of crime and disorder. Nantwich town centre is a fragile community where there is a fine line between the welfare of residents and the impact of the night time economy. The High Street/Oatmarket location is a focus for many late night revellers who patronise the already significant licensed premises and late night food outlets, as well as taxi pick-ups. This cumulative impact all creates nuisance for residents from noise, litter and anti-social behaviour. This application provides no assurance that it will do anything other than add to this public nuisance. A 02.00 terminal hour for licensable activity on Friday and Saturday is unreasonable and detrimental to residents. Customers leaving the premises from midnight onwards will add to the ever increasing numbers of late night revellers who create an unpleasant atmosphere throughout the town centre and who leave litter, vomit and urine. It should also be noted that the Licensing Authority and Cheshire Police appear unable to stem the tide of TENs which are incrementally increasing the boundaries of licensing activity (and associated nuisance and crime) across Nantwich town centre. This application is represents a further assault on the harmony of the town centre and must be resisted. This location is also a crime hot spot in Nantwich. There have been a number of violent and sexual assaults just metres from this venue. Creating another opportunity for customers to get drunk well into the early hours will only serve to heighten the risk of crime in this location. It is well known that Cheshire Constabulary are facing budgetary pressures and as a town centre resident I have no confidence that the current policing resources are sufficient to keep my house and my neighbourhood safe from crime and anti-social behaviour. This places a duty on the licensing authority and police to resist this application until they can provide residents with confidence that they have additional resources to oversee an expansion in licensable activity at 1-7 High Street and inevitable increase in crime and ASB in this location. Regards.
