Dear Mr Holmes,

TEMPORARY EVENT NOTICE
LICENSING ACT 2003

Thank you for the Temporary Event Notice given under the Licensing Act 2003 received on 2 August 2022. Cheshire East Borough Council hereby acknowledges receipt of the Temporary Event Notice in relation to:

Temporary Event Number:

076648

Premises Details

The Crazy Moose
18 Lawton Street, Congleton
Post Code: CW12 1RP

Licensable activities: The sale by retail of alcohol, the provision of regulated entertainment, the provision of late night refreshment.

Date(s) and time(s) the Notice authorises the carrying out of licensable activities: 26/08/2022 – 29/08/2022, 15:00 PM - 02:00 AM.

The Licensing Authority has consulted the Police and Environmental Health team, who have three working days to make an objection notice if they feel that such an objection is necessary on the basis of the licensing objectives.

If no objection is made you will not receive any further correspondence from the Licensing Authority and the event will continue as notified. If an objection notice is received from the Police or Environmental Health team, a hearing of the Licensing Committee will be convened to determine the matter, and you will be notified of the details accordingly.

For more information in relation to the processing of the Notice please see the relevant guidance notes supplied with the application form. If you have any queries in relation to this matter please do not hesitate to contact the writer on the telephone number above.

The Licensing Department have a new satisfaction survey to ensure we continually improve the services offered. To complete the survey please visit:

Yours sincerely,
Licensing Team

NOTES FOR PREMISES USERS

TEMPORARY EVENT NOTICES

Right of entry where temporary event notice given

A constable or an authorised officer may, at any reasonable time, enter the premises to which a temporary event notice relates to assess the likely effect of the notice on the promotion of the crime prevention objective. (An officer must, if requested, produce evidence of his/her authority to exercise this power of entry)

A person commits an offence if he intentionally obstructs an authorised officer exercising this power of entry (a person guilty of an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale).

“authorised officer” for these purposes means—

- (a) an officer of the licensing authority in whose area the premises are situated, or
- (b) if the premises are situated in the area of more than one licensing authority, an officer of any of those authorities, who has been so authorised for this purpose.

Duty to keep and produce temporary event notice

Whenever premises are being used for one or more licensable activities which are or are purported to be permitted temporary activities, the premises user must either—

- (a) secure that a copy of the temporary event notice is prominently displayed at the premises, or
- (b) secure that the temporary event notice is kept at the premises in –
 - (i) his custody, or
 - (ii) in the custody of a person who is present and working at the premises and whom he has nominated for this purposes and where the temporary event notice is in the custody of a nominated person, secure that a notice specifying that fact and the position held at the premises by that person is prominently displayed at the premises.

The premises user commits an offence if he fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with this requirement.

Where either (a) the temporary event notice is not displayed; or (b) a notice of nomination is not displayed, then a constable or authorised officer may require the premises user to produce the temporary event notice for examination.

Where a notice of nomination is displayed, a constable or authorised officer may require the person specified in that notice to produce the temporary event notice for examination.

(if requested the officer must produce evidence of his authority to exercise the power).

A person commits an offence if he fails, without reasonable excuse, to produce a temporary event notice in accordance with these requirements. (A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale).

Theft, loss, etc of temporary event notice

Where a temporary event notice that has been acknowledged by the Licensing Authority is lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, the premises user may apply to the licensing authority which acknowledged the notice (or, if there is more than one such authority, any of them) for a copy of the notice.

No application may be made under this section more than one month after the end of the event period specified in the notice. (The application must be accompanied by the prescribed fee).

Where a licensing authority receives an application under this section, it must issue the premises user with a copy of the notice (certified by the authority to be a true copy) if it is satisfied that—

- (a) the notice has been lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, and
- (b) where it has been lost or stolen, the premises user has reported that loss or theft to the police.

The copy issued under this section must be a copy of the notice in the form it existed immediately before it was lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.
