Continuous improvement

Big Book of Best Practice

Our quality improvement priorities 2022-23

Clinical effectiveness
 Improvement in the use of outcome measures as a mechanism for quality improvement through the development of a clinician-level digital dashboard (known as an 'Effective Care tool')
Patient experience:
 To ensure that people are asked for their feedback on the quality of their care in the last 12 months
Patient safety
 Enhanced patient training to CWP staff, which emphasises a proactive approach to identifying risks to safe care and includes systems thinking and human factors

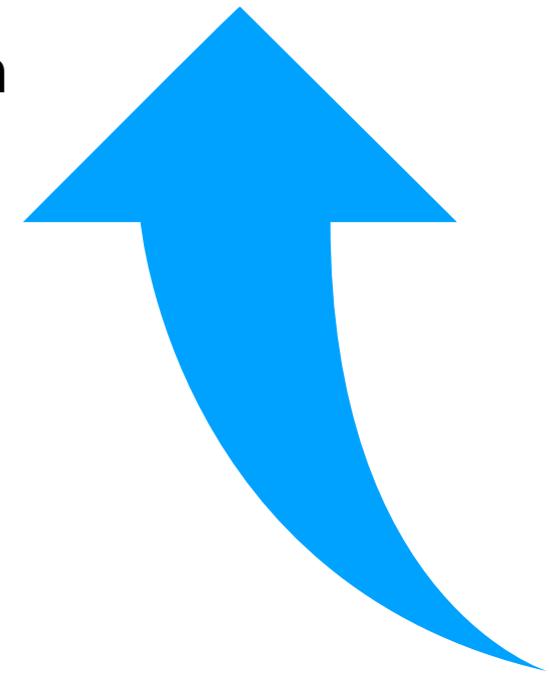

Our quality improvement priorities 2023-24

- To implement the Patient Safety Incident Response Framework (PSIRF), demonstrating tangible benefits of the framework in the way we respond to incidents in terms of integration of learning and patient safety improvement.
- To develop clinical networks across all Care Groups, as a support to services and practitioners to use evidence and research as mechanisms for improvement and assurance.
- Implementation of the revised Patient Experience Improvement framework.

Listening to you

Children, Young People & Families

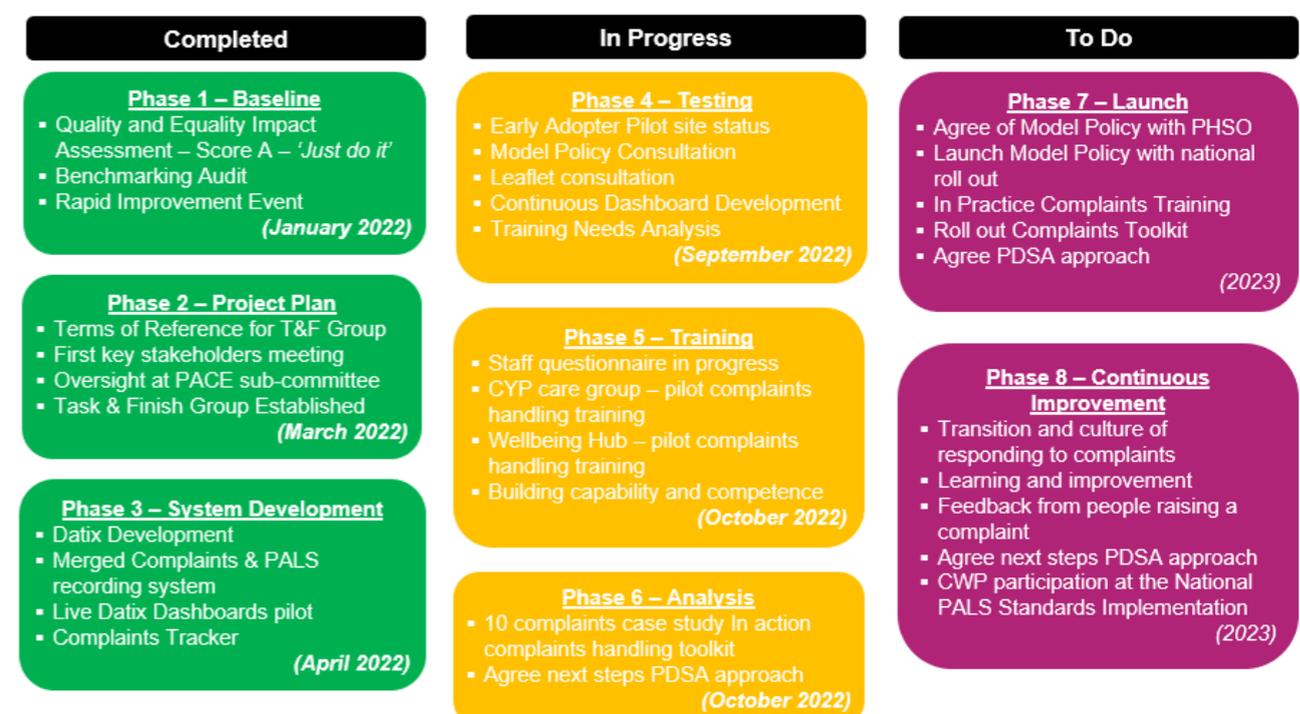

Mum asked practitioner to pass on her thanks for the support telephone calls they received from the Urgent Support Team, she was very grateful to the team for relieving her stress and for supporting both her and (patient).

“My daughter’s mental health worker was excellent, caring, helpful and very good at her job. Really grateful for the service and support. (Staff member) was a pleasure to work with for (patient) and us. She was great at taking us on this journey, problem solving and never giving up and giving us tools to use. Helpful, flexible, informative, friendly, professional, patient, consistently kind and supportive.”

Specialist Mental Health – place based

Patient who is due for discharge today came up to staff members and thanked us all for the care we provided while patient was admitted. During their admission they said even they were very unwell and could not get out of their room. Staff provided person-centred care, ensuring that the patient had their medication and diet and fluid and continued to provide interaction with the patient to ensure they did not become isolative. Patient thanked staff for everything we have done for them and they have felt so welcomed since being admitted.
