	Do nothing	The Council's Constitution requires these bodies to be appointed in line with the legislation referenced in this report. Implications and Comments

Monitoring Officer/Legal/Governance

- 10 The Children and Families Committee has power to appoint informal working groups, panels or task groups with defined terms of reference and timeframes.
- 11 The Committee also has power and/or has historically been asked to nominate members to each of the sub-committees particularly where they fall within the remit of the Committee.
- 12 The Local Government (Committees and Political Groups) Regulations 1990, made pursuant to the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, make provisions in respect of the political group representation on a local authority's committees in relation to the overall political composition of the Council. The legislation applies to the decision-making committees and sub-committees of the Council and requires that, where proportionality applies, and seats are allocated to different political groups, the authority must abide by the following principles, so far as is reasonably practicable:
 - Not all of the seats can be allocated to the same political Group (i.e., there are no single group committees).
 - The majority of the seats on the body are to be allocated to a political Group with a majority membership of the authority.
 - The total number of seats on all ordinary committees and sub committees allocated to each Political Group bears the same proportion to the proportion on the full Council.
 - The number of seats on each ordinary committee allocated to each Political Group bears the same proportion to the proportion on full Council.
 - The proposals contained in this report meet the requirements of the legislation.
 - The 1990 Regulations require Political Group Leaders to notify the Proper Officer of the Groups' nominations to the bodies in question.
