20 SCHOOL ATTAINMENT - CENTRE FOR PUBLIC SCRUTINY (CFPS) PROJECT

Su Turner Head of Programmes, Centre for Public Scrutiny (CfPS) attended the meeting and gave a presentation on a pilot project that she was assisting the Council with, in relation to school attainment. The project would develop ways for council scrutiny to influence local education, and support school leaders to improve results.

Specifically the project would:

Support the committee to:

- Conduct a review of school improvement
- Use learning from CfPS' back to school publication to review how the council can maintain an overview of school performance in a mixed provider economy
- Explore roles for ward councillors in developing effective relationships with schools
- Gain a better understanding of how the council can monitor school performance and continue to discharge its statutory duties with regard to children
- enhance local relationships with schools
- Improve further the level of education for children

RESOLVED –

- (a) That the involvement of this committee in the pilot project to improve school attainment across Cheshire East be approved;
- (b) That Su Turner be requested to consult with Councillors Dorothy Flude, Arthur Moran and Gill Merry on the contents of a draft scoping document outlining the committee's potential involvement in the project with a view to the committee becoming fully engaged in the project after the May elections.
